PREFACE:

- P1. The ICA Ad Hoc Commission on Descriptive Standards (ICA/DDS), which developed ISAD(G), became a permanent committee at the ICA International Congress on Archives in Beijing, China, in 1996. The current Committee on Descriptive Standards (ICA/CDS) undertook the revision of ISAD(G) (Ottawa, 1994) as its primary task in its program for the 1996-2000 quadrennium.
- P2. This, the second edition of the ISAD(G), is the result of a revision process which was declared in the preface of the 1994 edition, where a five-year revision cycle was foreseen. The announcement to the international archival community for submitting comments for the revision was made early in 1998 in letters sent to all institutional and association members of the ICA, as well as to various relevant organizational units within ICA. The announcement was also posted to the ICA List and World Wide Web (WWW) site on the Internet. The deadline for comments was announced for 15 September 1998 with the aim of starting the revision work at the second plenary meeting of the committee.
- P3. At the end of September 1998 the Secretariat of the ICA/CDS had received approximately 33 submissions from national committees, organizations and individuals from 25 countries. The comments were compiled into a compendium of some 101 pages. The “Compendium of Comments ISAD(G) Review”, which was sent to all members of the Committee in advance, became the working document for the 2nd Plenary meeting of the ICA/CDS.
- P.4 The ICA/CDS 2nd Plenary took place in The Hague 19-22 October 1998 where a first draft of the revised ISAD(G) was produced based on the comments submitted. This draft was circulated among the members and further refined by correspondence. The draft was finished at the 3rd Plenary of the Committee in Stockholm, Sweden and submitted for publication in early 2000 for the XIVth International Congress on Archives in Seville, Spain in September 2000.

The following are the members of the ICA Committee on Descriptive Standards who undertook the revision and served on the Committee during its 1996-2000 term. (Members' names in italic continued from the ICA/DDS):

Victoria Arias (Spain)	1996-1998
Elisa Carolina de Santos Canalejo (Spain)	1998-
Adrian Cunningham (Australia)	1998-
Jan Dahlin (Sweden)	1996-
Vitor Manoel Marques da Fonseca (Brazil)	1996-
Michael Fox (USA)	1996-
Ana Franqueira (Portugal)	1996-
Bruno Galland (France)	1996-
Kent Haworth (Canada)	1996-
Ma Jinghua (China)	1996-
Christine Nougaret , (France) Chair	1996-
Dagmar Parer (Australia)	1996-1998
Lydia Reid (U.S.A.)	1999-
Hugo Stibbe (Canada) Project Director and Secretary	1996-
Stefano Vitali (Italy)	1996-
Debra Wall (U.S.A.)	1996-1998

Also attending one or more plenary meetings:

Asunción de Navascués Benlloch (Spain)
 Eeva Murtomaa (Finland) IFLA liaison
 Per-Gunnar Ottosson (Sweden)

The ICA Committee on Descriptive Standards (ICA/CDS) gratefully acknowledges the sponsorship of its plenary and sub-committee meetings by the following institutions:

Archives de France (Paris) (twice)
 Archivio di Stato di Firenze (Florence, Italy)
 Arquivos Nacionais / Torre do Tombo (Lisbon, Portugal)
 Landsarkivet (Stockholm, Sweden) (twice)
 Rijksarchiefdienst (The Hague, Netherlands)
 The National Archives of Canada (Ottawa, Canada) which sponsored the Secretariat for a second quadrennium of ICA descriptive standards work.

Without their substantial contributions, both financial and in facilities and logistics for organizing the meetings, this standard would not have been possible.

INTRODUCTION

- I.1 This standard provides general guidance for the preparation of archival descriptions. It is to be used in conjunction with existing national standards or as the basis for the development of national standards.
- I.2 The purpose of archival description is to identify and explain the context and content of archival material in order to promote its accessibility. This is achieved by creating accurate and appropriate representations and by organizing them in accordance with predetermined models. Description-related processes may begin at or before records creation and continue throughout the life of the records. These processes make it possible to institute the intellectual controls necessary for reliable, authentic, meaningful and accessible descriptive records to be carried forward through time.
- I.3 Specific elements of information about archival materials are recorded at every phase of their management (e.g., creation, appraisal, accessioning, conservation, arrangement) if the material is to be on the one hand securely preserved and controlled, and on the other hand made accessible at the proper time to all who have a right to consult it. Archival description in the widest sense of the term covers every element of information no matter at what stage of management it is identified or established. At every stage the information about the material remains dynamic and may be subject to amendment in the light of further knowledge of its content or the context of its creation. Computerized information systems in particular may serve to integrate or select elements of information as required, and to update or amend them. While the focus of these rules is the description of archival materials after the point at which they have been selected for preservation, they may also be applied at earlier phases.
- I.4 This standard contains general rules for archival description that may be applied irrespective of the form or medium of the archival material. The rules contained in this standard do not give guidance on the description of special materials such as seals, sound recordings, or maps. Manuals setting out descriptive rules for such materials already exist. This standard should be used in conjunction with these manuals to enable appropriate description of special materials.
- I.5 This set of general rules for archival description is part of a process that will
- a. ensure the creation of consistent, appropriate, and self explanatory descriptions;
 - b. facilitate the retrieval and exchange of information about archival material;
 - c. enable the sharing of authority data; and
 - d. make possible the integration of descriptions from different locations into a unified information system.
- I.6 The rules accomplish these purposes by identifying and defining twenty-six (26) elements that may be combined to constitute the description of an archival entity. The structure and content of the information in each of these elements should be formulated in accordance with applicable national rules. As general rules, these are intended to be broadly applicable to descriptions of archives regardless of the nature or extent of the unit of description. However, the standard does not define output formats, or the ways in which these elements are presented, for example, in inventories, catalogues, lists, etc.

- I.7 Archival descriptive standards are based on accepted theoretical principles. For example, the principle that archival description proceeds from the general to the specific is the practical consequence of the principle of respect des fonds.¹ This principle must be articulated if a generally applicable structure and system of archival description is to be built which is not dependent on the finding aids of any given repository, whether in a manual or automated environment.
- I.8 In Appendix A-1 one may find a hierarchical model of the levels of arrangement for the fonds and its constituent parts. There are levels of description, with differing degrees of detail, appropriate to each level of arrangement. For example, a fonds may be described as a whole in a single description or represented as a whole and in its parts at various levels of description. The fonds forms the broadest level of description; the parts form subsequent levels, whose description is often only meaningful when seen in the context of the description of the whole of the fonds. Thus, there may be a fonds-level description, a series-level description, a file-level description and/or an item-level description. Intermediate levels, such as a sub-fonds or sub-series, may be expected. Each of these levels may be further subdivided according to the complexity of the administrative structure and/or functions of the organization which generated the archival material and the organization of the material. In Appendix A-2 the model represents the complex relationships between creator(s) and the units of description, regardless of level, as expressed in the boxes representing authority records according to ISAAR(CPF) and the links between them and the boxes representing the units of description of the fonds and its parts. Appendix B shows full examples of archival descriptions and some of its parts.
- I.9 Each rule consists of:
- a. the name of the element of description governed by the rule;
 - b. a statement of the purpose of incorporating the element in a description;
 - c. a statement of the general rule (or rules) applicable to the element; and
 - d. where applicable, examples illustrating implementation of the rule(s).
- I.10 Paragraphs are numbered and are given for citation purposes only. These numbers should not be used to designate elements of description.
- I.11 The rules are organized into seven areas of descriptive information:
1. Identity Statement Area
(where essential information is conveyed to identify the unit of description)
 2. Context Area
(where information is conveyed about the origin and custody of the unit of description)
 3. Content and Structure Area
(where information is conveyed about the subject matter and arrangement of the unit of description)
 4. Condition of Access and Use Area
(where information is conveyed about the availability of the unit of description)
 5. Allied Materials Area
(where information is conveyed about materials having an important relationship to the unit of description)

¹ It is assumed that the same rules used to describe a fonds and its parts may be applied to the description of a collection.

6. Note Area
(where specialized information and information that cannot be accommodated in any of the other areas may be conveyed).
7. Description Control Area
(where information is conveyed on how, when and by whom the archival description was prepared).

- I.12 All 26 elements covered by these general rules are available for use, but only a subset need be used in any given description. A very few elements are considered essential for international exchange of descriptive information:
- a. reference code;
 - b. title;
 - c. creator;
 - d. date(s);
 - e. extent of the unit of description; and
 - f. level of description.

Examples throughout the text of ISAD(G) are illustrative and not prescriptive. They illuminate the provisions of the rules to which they are attached, rather than extend those provisions. Do not take the examples, or the form in which they are presented as instructions. To clarify the context, each example is followed by an indication of the level of description to which it pertains in italic and in parentheses. On the next line, the name of the institution that holds the material which the example illustrates and/or supplied the example is indicated, also in italic. Further explanatory note(s) may follow, also in italic, preceded by the word Note:. Do not confuse the indication of the level of description, the source of the example, and any notes with the example itself.

- I.13 The extent to which a given archival description will incorporate more than the essential elements of information will vary depending on the nature of the unit of description.
- I.14 Access points are based upon the elements of description. The value of access points is enhanced through authority control. Because of the importance of access points for retrieval, a separate ICA standard, International Standard Archival Authority Record for Corporate Bodies, Persons and Families: ISAAR(CPF), has been developed. ISAAR(CPF) gives general rules for the establishment of archival authority records that describe the corporate bodies, persons, and families that may be named as creators in descriptions of archival documents. (See Appendix A-2 for a schematic illustration of the relationship between descriptive and authority records.) Vocabularies and conventions to be used with other access points should be developed nationally, or separately for each language. The following ISO standards are useful when developing and maintaining controlled vocabularies: ISO 5963 Documentation — Methods for examining documents, determining their subject, and selecting indexing terms, ISO 2788 Documentation — Guidelines for the establishment and development of monolingual thesauri and ISO 999 Information and documentation — Guidelines for the content, organization and presentation of indexes.
- I.15 In citing a published source in any element of description, follow the latest version of ISO 690 Documentation — Bibliographic references — Content, form and structure.

0. GLOSSARY OF TERMS ASSOCIATED WITH THE GENERAL RULES

0.1 The following glossary with terms and their definitions forms an integral part of these rules of description. The definitions are to be understood as having been formulated specifically for the purposes of this document.

Access. The ability to make use of material from a fonds, usually subject to rules and conditions.

Access point. A name, term, keyword, phrase or code that may be used to search, identify and locate an archival description.

Accrual. An acquisition additional to a unit of description already held by a repository.

Appraisal. The process of determining the retention period of records.

Archival description. The creation of an accurate representation of a unit of description and its component parts, if any, by capturing, analyzing, organizing and recording information that serves to identify, manage, locate and explain archival materials and the context and records systems which produced it.

This term also describes the products of the process.

Arrangement. The intellectual and physical processes and results of analyzing and organizing documents in accordance with archival principles.

Author. The individual or corporate body responsible for the intellectual content of a document. Not to be confused with creators of records.

Authority control. See the Glossary of ISAAR(CPF).

Collection. An artificial assemblage of documents accumulated on the basis of some common characteristic without regard to the provenance of those documents. Not to be confused with an archival fonds.

Corporate body. An organization or group of persons that is identified by a particular name and that acts, or may act, as an entity.

Creator. The corporate body, family or person that created, accumulated and/or maintained records in the conduct of personal or corporate activity. Not be confused with collector.

Custody. The responsibility for the care of documents based on their physical possession. Custody does not always include legal ownership or the right to control access to records.

Document. Recorded information regardless of medium or characteristics. (See also Record.)

File. An organized unit of documents grouped together either for current use by the creator or in the process of archival arrangement, because they relate to the same subject, activity, or transaction. A file is usually the basic unit within a record series.

Finding aid. The broadest term to cover any description or means of reference made or received by an archives service in the course of establishing administrative or intellectual control over archival material.

Fonds. The whole of the records, regardless of form or medium, organically created and/or accumulated and used by a particular person, family, or corporate body in the course of that creator's activities and functions.

Form. A class of documents distinguished on the basis of common physical (e.g., water colour, drawing) and/or intellectual (e.g., diary, journal, day book, minute book) characteristics of a document.

Formal title. A title which appears prominently on or in the archival material being described.

Item. The smallest intellectually indivisible archival unit, e.g., a letter, memorandum, report, photograph, sound recording.

Level of description. The position of the unit of description in the hierarchy of the fonds.

Medium. The physical material, container, and/or carrier in or on which information is recorded (i.e., clay tablet, papyrus, paper, parchment, film, magnetic tape).

Provenance. The relationship between records and the organizations or individuals that created, accumulated and/or maintained and used them in the conduct of personal or corporate activity.

Record. Recorded information in any form or medium, created or received and maintained, by an organization or person in the transaction of business or the conduct of affairs.

Series. Documents arranged in accordance with a filing system or maintained as a unit because they result from the same accumulation or filing process, or the same activity; have a particular form; or because of some other relationship arising out of their creation, receipt, or use. A series is also known as a records series.

Sub-fonds. A subdivision of a fonds containing a body of related records corresponding to administrative subdivisions in the originating agency or organization or, when that is not possible, to geographical, chronological, functional, or similar groupings of the material itself. When the creating body has a complex hierarchical structure, each sub-fonds has as many subordinate sub-fonds as are necessary to reflect the levels of the hierarchical structure of the primary subordinate administrative unit.

Supplied title. A title supplied by the archivist for a unit of description which has no formal title.

Title. A word, phrase, character, or group of characters that names a unit of description.

Unit of description. A document or set of documents in any physical form, treated as an entity, and as such, forming the basis of a single description.

1. MULTILEVEL DESCRIPTION

1.1 INTRODUCTION

If the fonds as a whole is being described, it should be represented in one description, using the elements of description as outlined below in section 3 of this document. If description of the parts is required, they may be described separately also using the appropriate elements from section 3. The sum total of all descriptions thus obtained, linked in a hierarchy, as outlined in the model in the Appendix A-1, represents the fonds and those parts for which descriptions were made. For the purposes of these rules, this technique of description is called multilevel description.

Four fundamental rules apply when establishing a hierarchy of descriptions. They are set out in rules 2.1 to 2.4.

2. MULTILEVEL DESCRIPTION RULES

2.1 DESCRIPTION FROM THE GENERAL TO THE SPECIFIC

Purpose:

To represent the context and the hierarchical structure of the fonds and its parts.

Rule:

At the fonds level give information for the fonds as a whole. At the next and subsequent levels give information for the parts being described. Present the resulting descriptions in a hierarchical part-to-whole relationship proceeding from the broadest (fonds) to the more specific.

2.2 INFORMATION RELEVANT TO THE LEVEL OF DESCRIPTION

Purpose:

To represent accurately the context and content of the unit of description.

Rule:

Provide only such information as is appropriate to the level being described. For example, do not provide detailed file content information if the unit of description is a fonds; do not provide an administrative history for an entire department if the creator of a unit of description is a division or a branch.

2.3 LINKING OF DESCRIPTIONS

Purpose:

To make explicit the position of the unit of description in the hierarchy.

Rule:

Link each description to its next higher unit of description, if applicable, and identify the level of description. (See 3.1.4.)

2.4 NON-REPETITION OF INFORMATION

Purpose:

To avoid redundancy of information in hierarchically related archival descriptions.

Rule:

At the highest appropriate level, give information that is common to the component parts. Do not repeat information at a lower level of description that has already been given at a higher level.

3. ELEMENTS OF DESCRIPTION

3.1 IDENTITY STATEMENT AREA

3.1.1 Reference code(s)

Purpose:

To identify uniquely the unit of description and to provide a link to the description that represents it.

Rule:

Record, as necessary for unique identification, the following elements:

- the country code in accordance with the latest version of ISO 3166 Codes for the representation of names of countries;
- the repository code in accordance with the national repository code standard or other unique location identifier;
- a specific local reference code, control number, or other unique identifier.

All three elements must be present for the purpose of information exchange at the international level.

3.1.2 Title

Purpose:

To name the unit of description.

Rules:

Provide either a formal title or a concise supplied title in accordance with the rules of multilevel description and national conventions.

If appropriate, abridge a long formal title, but only if this can be done without loss of essential information.

For supplied titles, at the higher level, include the name of the creator of the records. At lower levels one may include, for example, the name of the author of the document and a term indicating the form of the material comprising the unit of description and, where appropriate, a phrase reflecting function, activity, subject, location, or theme.

Distinguish between formal and supplied titles according to national or language conventions.

3.1.3 Date(s)

Purpose:

To identify and record the date(s) of the unit of description.

Rules:

Record at least one of the following types of dates for the unit of description, as appropriate to the materials and the level of description.

Date(s) when records were accumulated in the transaction of business or the conduct of affairs;

Date(s) when documents were created. This includes the dates of copies, editions, or versions of, attachments to, or originals of items generated prior to their accumulation as records.

Identify the type of date(s) given. Other dates may be supplied and identified in accordance with national conventions.²

Record as a single date or a range of dates as appropriate. A range of dates should always be inclusive unless the unit of description is a record-keeping system (or part thereof) in active use.

- b. the medium of the unit of description.

Rules:

³ The terms used for the levels of description of the in-text examples in this document are in English. For the terms in other languages, see the translations of ISAD(G) in that language. (Some non-English terms may be consulted in the full examples of Appendix B.)

Record the extent of the unit of description by giving the number of physical or logical units in arabic numerals and the unit of measurement. Give the specific medium (media) of the unit of description.

Alternatively, give the linear shelf space or cubic storage space of the unit of description. If the statement of extent for a unit of description is given in linear terms and additional information is desirable, add the additional information in parentheses.

3.2 CONTEXT AREA

[Some of the information in this area, i.e., the name of the creator(s) and the administrative/biographical history may, in certain applications, be accommodated in linked authority files. See I.14.]

3.2.1 Name of creator(s)

Purpose:

To identify the creator (or creators) of the unit of description.

Rule:

Record the name of the organization(s) or the individual(s) responsible for the creation, accumulation and maintenance of the records in the unit of description. The name should be given in the standardized form as prescribed by international or national conventions in accordance with the principles of ISAAR(CPF).

3.2.2 Administrative / Biographical history

Purpose:

To provide an administrative history of, or biographical details on, the creator (or creators) of the unit of description to place the material in context and make it better understood.

Rules:

Record concisely any significant information on the origin, progress, development and work of the organization (or organizations) or on the life and work of the individual (or individuals) responsible for the creation of the unit of description. If additional information is available in a published source, cite the source.

The Information Areas of ISAAR(CPF) suggest specific informational elements that may be included in this element.

For persons or families record information such as full names and titles, dates of birth and death, place of birth, successive places of domicile, activities, occupation or offices, original and any other names, significant accomplishments, and place of death.

Examples:

Helen Lucas, Canadian artist, was born in 1931 in Weyburn, Saskatchewan, studied at the Ontario College of Art (Toronto) from 1950-1954 and was Drawing and Painting Master at Sheridan College (Oakville, Ont.) from 1973-1979. She has exhibited her art works widely in Canadian cities. She works from her Gallery in King City. In 1991 York University awarded her a Doctor of Letters (Honoris Causa). (Fonds)

Gaetano Salvemini nacque a Molfetta l'8 settembre 1873. Compiuti gli studi ginnasiali e liceali in seminario, per la mancanza di mezzi economici della famiglia, nel 1890 vinse una borsa di studio presso l'Istituto di studi superiori pratici e di perfezionamento di Firenze dove si laureò con una tesi su La dignità cavalleresca nel Comune di Firenze. L'intensa produzione scientifica gli valse, nel 1901, il conseguimento della cattedra di storia medievale e moderna all'Università di Messina. Il forte impegno politico all'interno del Partito socialista, si espresse nella collaborazione alla stampa socialista ("Critica sociale" e "Avanti!"). Nel 1908 nel terremoto che distrusse la città di Messina, perse la moglie, i cinque figli ed una sorella ed egli stesso si salvò per puro caso. Frattanto l'approfondirsi delle divergenze con i gruppi dirigenti del Partito socialista lo andavano allontanando dallo stesso partito, da cui uscì nel 1910 da posizioni democratico-radicali, per fondare il settimanale "L'Unità". Lasciata, a seguito del terremoto, l'Università di Messina insegnò prima a Pisa, per approdare poi alla cattedra di storia moderna dell'Istituto di studi superiori di Firenze. Allo scoppio della guerra mondiale si schierò a fianco dell'interventismo democratico. Nel 1925 dette vita al primo giornale clandestino antifascista: il "Non Mollare", esperienza che si chiuse con la scoperta e l'arresto dei promotori del giornale, fra i quali lo stesso Salvemini. Rimesso in libertà provvisoria, decise di espatriare clandestinamente. Nel 1934 conseguì la cattedra di storia della civiltà italiana, istituita in memoria di Lauro De Bosis, presso l'Harvard University di Cambridge (Mass). Nel 1947 rimise piede per la prima volta in Italia dopo venti anni d'esilio, per tornarvi poi stabilmente nel 1949. Si spense il 6 settembre 1957. (Fonds)

Pedro Aurélio de Góes Monteiro nasceu em Alagoas em 1889 e faleceu no Rio de Janeiro em 1956. Ingressou na Escola Militar em 1904. Foi nomeado chefe do estado-maior do destacamento em combate em Formiga, no Paraná, e designado para combater a Coluna Prestes. Chefe de gabinete do diretor de Aviação Militar (1927), assumiu a tarefa de organização da Aviação. Participou do movimento revolucionário de 1930 como chefe do estado-maior. Promovido a general de brigada em 1931, foi ministro da Guerra (1934-1935), inspetor das regiões militares do norte (1936) e chefe do Estado-Maior do Exército (1936-1939). Em 1945 assumiu o comando-em-chefe das Forças de Terra, Mar e Ar e, ao lado de outros generais, depôs o presidente Vargas. Com a volta de Getúlio Vargas à Presidência da República, assumiu a chefia geral do Estado-Maior das Forças Armadas (1951-1952). Escreveu Operações do Destacamento Mariante no Paraná Ocidental e A Revolução de 30 e a finalidade política do Exército. (Fonds) Brazil, Arquivo Nacional

For corporate bodies record information such as the official name, the dates of existence, enabling legislation, functions, purpose and development of the body, its administrative hierarchy, and earlier, variant or successive names.

La société ardoisière de l'Anjou a été constituée le 16 juillet 1894 par quatre actionnaires dans le but d'acquérir et d'exploiter plusieurs carrières en Maine-et-Loire (Trelazé et Noyant-la-Gravoyère) et dans la Mayenne. L'acquisition des ardoisières de Renazé s'est étalée sur quatre ans : propriétaire de la carrière d'Ensuzières et actionnaire majoritaire de la société de Laubinière (1894) ; propriétaire des ardoisières de la Touche et du Fresne (1895) ; propriétaire de Laubinière (1897). Victime de la concurrence espagnole vers 1960, la société ardoisière de l'Anjou a fermé son dernier puits à Renazé le 31 décembre 1975. (Fonds)

Le HFD [haut fonctionnaire de la défense] est installé depuis 1963 auprès du cabinet du ministre. Sa création faisait suite à l'ordonnance du 7 janvier 1959 portant organisation générale de la défense et au décret du 22 janvier de la même année, relatif aux attributions des ministres en la matière. Un décret postérieur du 13 janvier 1965 précisa l'organisation de la défense civile. C'est un arrêté du 3 août 1974 qui fixa dans le détail les attributions du haut fonctionnaire de défense (HFD) auprès du ministère de l'Intérieur. Il convient de préciser que les services de ce haut fonctionnaire englobèrent de 1975 à 1985 une sous-direction de la défense civile et des affaires militaires. En 1988, le service fut divisé en trois bureaux : le bureau de la protection des populations, le bureau de l'organisation, le bureau des plans de défense. (Fonds)

3.2.3 Archival history

Purpose:

To provide information on the history of the unit of description that is significant for its authenticity, integrity and interpretation.

Rules:

Record the successive transfers of ownership, responsibility and/or custody of the unit of description and indicate those actions, such as history of the arrangement, production of contemporary finding aids, re-use of the records for other purposes or software migrations, that have contributed to its present structure and arrangement. Give the dates of these actions, insofar as they can be ascertained. If the archival history is unknown, record that information.

Optionally, when the unit of description is acquired directly from the creator, do not record an archival history but rather, record this information as the Immediate source of acquisition. (See 3.2.4)

The papers were purchased by the National Library of Australia in March 1995 from Eddie Mabo's widow, Bonita Mabo. Before the papers were transferred to the Library in December 1994 they had been stored at the Mabo Family home in Townsville.

When the Library took delivery of the Mabo Papers, they consisted of a mixture of labeled files and loose papers. Files created and identified by Mabo have been retained and located in their appropriate series. In some cases, where papers were clearly misfiled, file contents were rearranged by Library staff in consultation with members of the Mabo family. Loose papers have been arranged into series in thematic and chronological order by Library staff. Users can identify files created by Mabo as these have been kept in their original folders and stored in the Library's numbered acid-free folders.

Included in the Mabo Papers were a number of audio tapes of oral history interviews conducted with Mabo by Professor Noel Loos of James Cook University. These tapes have been added to the Library's Oral History collection. (Fonds)

Les fonds des archives de cour tirent leur lointaine origine du trésor des chartes, conservé au château de Chambéry. Dès le XIV^e siècle, semble-t-il, ils se différencient des archives comptables. A l'époque d'Amédée VIII, au siècle suivant, le trésor des chartes, placé sous la responsabilité d'un archiviste propre, dit clavaire, forme un dépôt distinct de celui de la chambre des comptes. En 1539 les documents les plus précieux sont soustraits à l'occupation française et transférés à Verceil et à Nice. Dix ans plus tard les archives concernant le Piémont quittent Chambéry pour Turin....Au début du XVII^e siècle il existait à Turin deux dépôts : celui du château et les archives camérales ou de la chambre des comptes...De 1713 à 1719 ces fonds firent l'objet d'un classement général et, sous l'énergique impulsion de Victor-Amédée II, soixante-quinze inventaires en furent rédigés de 1710 à 1720... L'Archivio della Segreteria di Stato costituiva la prosecuzione di quello cosiddetto del Consiglio di reggenza ed ambedue erano sottoposti alla vigilanza del Direttore della Segreteria di Stato. Nel 1808, con l'annessione della Toscana all'Impero francese, i due archivi confluirono nella Conservazione generale degli archivi ed ivi rimasero fino al 1814 quando, con la Restaurazione, fu ripristinata la Segreteria di stato, che ritirò dalla Conservazione generale il solo Archivio della Segreteria di stato dal 1765-1808, mentre l'Archivio del Consiglio di reggenza confluì nella nuova concentrazione archivistica allora costituita e posta sotto il controllo dell'Avvocato Regio, denominata Archivi riuniti a quelli delle Regie Rendite, dove fu ordinato ed inventariato. Negli anni successivi anche l'Archivio della Segreteria di Stato (1765-1808) passò agli Archivi riuniti a quelli delle Regie Rendite, per poi confluire, nel 1846 assieme all'Archivio del Consiglio di Reggenza, nell'Archivio delle Riformagioni. Recebendo originalmente o código AP 51, os documentos foram identificados preliminarmente no início da década de 1980, tendo resultado desse trabalho uma relação de documentos por caixas e dentro destas por número de documento, seguindo como critério a guarda física do acervo e, provavelmente, a ordem original de entrada dos documentos na Instituição, sem agrupá-los por assunto, cronologia ou espécie. Essa relação permaneceu em vigor até julho de 1996, quando foi iniciado o arranjo deste fundo. (Fonds)

3.3 CONTENT AND STRUCTURE AREA

3.3.1 Scope and content

Purpose:

To enable users to judge the potential relevance of the unit of description.

Rule:

Give a summary of the scope (such as, time periods, geography) and content, (such as documentary forms, subject matter, administrative processes) of the unit of description, appropriate to the level of description.

Examples:

The fonds consists of correspondence, scrapbooks, photographs, "The Diary Series"(1971-1978); Relationship Drawings (1978-1981) (both of which includes 246 charcoal drawings, 40 sketches, 34 drawings, 5 etchings, 47 lithographs, 3 framed serigraphs, 1 sketchbook, and 1 pastel on paper); preliminary drawings for Angelica (1973) and Genesis; twelve original collage drawings for the book co-authored by Lucas and Margaret Laurence entitled The Christmas Story (1981) complemented with letters from Laurence while they were collaborating on the book; original prints (1970s); a sketchbook (1971); and Drawing Dedicated to my Daughter. Lucas provides an accompanying narrative to many of the drawings, giving context for the works and an account of their evolution between 1971 and 1979. The initial sketchbook pages are also included, portraying intimate personal images which she likens to "finding the achievement of my own voice." (Fonds)

The papers document many of Eddie Mabo's activities, especially during the years 1972-1992. These include his involvement in a number of family-based business and employment-creation ventures; his establishment of the Black Community School in Townsville, the first institution of its kind in Australia; his interest and involvement in indigenous arts; his involvement in a number of indigenous health, housing and education related boards, associations and committees; and his support for Torres Strait Islander independence and self-determination. The papers include material on the landmark land claim case, a number of personal documents, job applications and some song lyrics. In the later years of his life, Mabo kept diaries; some of these (1976, 1985-1992) are preserved in the Mabo Papers. (Fonds)

Il fondo, nella parte che riguarda specificatamente la documentazione prodotta dalla Segreteria di Stato, è strutturato nelle tre serie tipiche degli archivi delle segreterie e dei ministeri toscani: quella delle buste di affari risolti, quella dei registri dei protocolli delle risoluzioni e, infine, quella dei registri (o repertori) degli affari, che costituisce lo strumento di accesso alle altre due. Rimasto privo di strumenti di corredo e di numerazione unica, fino al suo trasferimento dagli Uffizi all'attuale sede dell'Archivio di stato di Firenze (1989), è stato in quell'occasione inventariato e dotato di numerazione unica di corda da Orsola Campanile. APPENDIX A-1

- A1 The ISAD(G) hierarchical model shows a typical case and does not include all possible combinations of levels. Any number of intermediate levels are possible between any shown in the model.

Model of the levels of arrangement of a fonds

RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN DESCRIPTIVE AND AUTHORITY RECORDS

Illustrated with an example

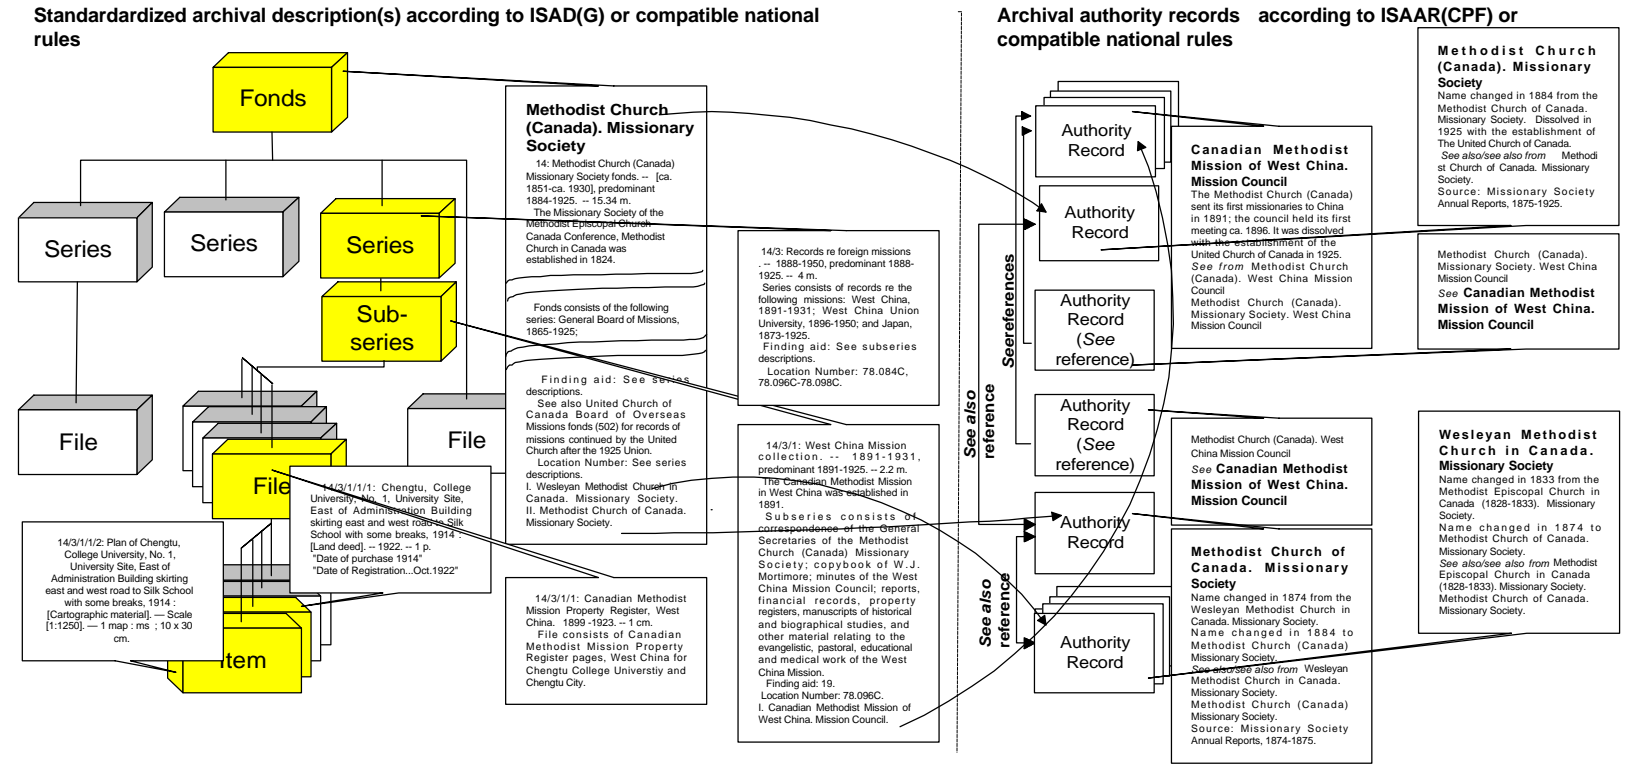

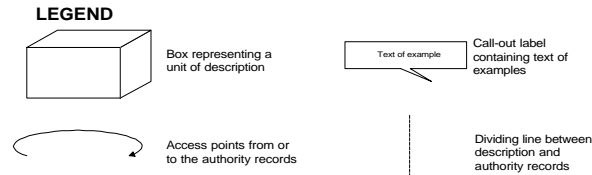

Chart designed and produced by Hugo L.P. Stibbe, c1998

APPENDIX B

Full Examples

The examples in this appendix are set out to illustrate ISAD(G). According to paragraph 6 of the introduction (I.6), “...the standard does not define output formats, or the ways in which these elements [of description] are presented, for example in inventories, catalogues, lists, etc.” Consequently, the display and order of the elements of description in this appendix are not mandatory. However, for the purposes of this standard, they follow the order of ISAD(G).

The multilevel aspect of ISAD(G) is illustrated by including as many levels of description in a single vertical hierarchy as are applicable and/or practical for the purposes of this standard. Not all examples are multilevel. Where levels of description are present, they are named and shown by indentation. The description of the parts do not necessarily show all possible levels nor all of the descriptions that would result from describing a fonds or collection and all of its parts. In accordance with I.12, the examples do not necessarily contain all 26 elements of description of the ISAD(G). In the examples, the mandatory elements of description are not all repeated at each level. Because the display in appendix B shows an integrated hierarchy, the multilevel rule 2.4, Non-repetition of Information, is applied. For example, if the creator of the unit of description at a higher level is the same as the creator at a lower level, it is not repeated at the lower level(s).

The numbering and the names of the elements of description appear in the left-hand column in the language of the standard. In accordance with I.4, local or existing rules may be used for special types of materials. (This usually occurs at the item level of description.) Names of elements of description for special materials which do not occur in ISAD(G) are shown in brackets and the rules or conventions used must be specified. (See 3.7.2.)

The contents of the elements of description appear in the middle column in the language of the description as submitted to the ICA/CDS. The names of the elements of description in the language of description, other than the language of the standard, appear in the right-hand column. This column will be empty if the language of description is the same as the language of the standard.

Other than the name(s) of the creator(s) (controlled or uncontrolled), access points are not shown in these examples. See ISAAR(CPF) for aspects of authority control for names of creators.

3.2.1 Name of creator(s) Canada. Dept. of Railways and Canals

3.2.2 Administrative history

The Department of Railways and Canals existed from 1879 to 1936. It was established on May 15, 1879 (42 Vict. c. 7, s. 4-5), when it assumed responsibilities formerly under the direction of the Department of Public Works. It was dissolved on November 2, 1936 (1 Edw. VIII, c. 34), when its functions were incorporated in the newly created Department of Transport to group together all the federal government's transport related activities. A Minister of the crown headed the Department, with a Deputy Minister as the chief administrative officer. Initially, it had two branches, the Railway Branch and the Canal Branch, each directed by a Chief Engineer, with the assistance of an accountant and a secretary responsible for record keeping, contracts, and reports. The Railway Branch was responsible for the construction, operation, and maintenance of government-owned railways and telegraph networks such as the Intercolonial Railway, and the Prince Edward Island Railway and with railway companies with which it had major contracts such as the Canadian Pacific Railway Company. The Canal Branch was responsible for construction, operation, and maintenance of canals and navigation systems on the Great Lakes and along the St. Lawrence, Ottawa, Trent, and Richelieu Rivers, as well as for the St. Peter's and Rideau Canals. In addition to its central offices in Ottawa, the Department had a large field service to operate railways and canals. In 1906, a Statistical Branch, which reported to the Comptroller, was created to gather and compile data on canals and railways. Three years later, the department reorganized into five branches, the Secretary's, Legal, Statistical, Accountant's, and two Chief Engineers Branches. In 1912, the Office of the Assistant Deputy Minister was created to oversee general administration.

3.2.2 Administrative history	When the Department of Railways and Canals was created in 1879, the Railway Branch of the Department of Public Works was transferred to the new department. The Railway Branch was responsible for the construction, operation and maintenance of government-owned railways, which in 1879 included the Intercolonial Railway, the Prince Edward Island Railway and a planned transcontinental railway to British Columbia. The branch was also responsible for the administration of federal government aid to railways, designed to encourage the development and construction of new lines. Government assistance took many forms and at various times included land grants, cash subsidies, loans, debentures and the guarantee of bonds or interest. By 1879, steam railways had assumed a significant role in Canadian economic development and were expanding very rapidly. The plan to construct a railroad to the Pacific Coast in the early 1870s was only one factor affecting the decision to create a separate Department of Railways and Canals. Since 1850, close to 6,800 miles of track had been laid in Canada, seventy percent in the twelve years since Confederation. During the lifetime of the Department of Railways and Canals, not one but three trans-continental railways were constructed, and thousands of miles of new lines were laid in all regions of Canada. Between 1900 and 1915 alone, railway mileage doubled from 17,657 to 34,882. This over extension of railway development immediately prior to World War I eventually led to the amalgamation of the Canadian Northern Railway, the Grand Trunk Railways and the Canadian Government Railways system to form Canadian National Railways (CNR). By the end of 1936, Canada had over 42,000 miles of railway track, most of which was operated by CNR and the Canadian Pacific Railway (CPR). The Dominion Government had granted 31,881,643 acres of land to steam railway companies as bonus grants or grants for rights of way, stations or townsites, and over 72,000,000 had been disbursed to railway companies. The Department of Railways and Canals, through its Railway Branch, was intimately associated with this great era of railway development in Canada from 1879 until 1936.
3.3.1 Scope and content	Series consists of records acquired and accumulated by the Railway Branch of the Department of Railways and Canals between 1867 and 1936. The series includes correspondence records, records from the Office of the Chief Engineer, records relating to subsidies to Railways and to the Quebec Bridge and Railroad Company.

3.2.1 Name of creator(s) Smith, John, 1943-

3.2.2 Biographical history John Smith is a Canadian film-maker whose films include "Dieppe" and "The Boys of St. Vincent", which he both directed and co-wrote, the latter gaining for him the 1994 Gemini award for Best Direction in a Dramatic Program. Smith was born in Montreal in 1943 and obtained a B.A. in 1964 from McGill University. While studying for a Master's degree in Political Science he became involved with a group of film-makers, and as a result of this association produced his first film with a fellow-student for the CBC in 1967. In 1968 he went to work for CBC Toronto as a researcher and a year later moved to Hobel-Leiterman Productions as a producer/director for television series on the CTV network. In 1972 he joined the National Film Board as executive producer of the television unit. With the closure of the NFB's television unit in the mid-1970's, Smith turned his attention to drama, with the result that he produced several films, including Acting Class (a view of the workings of the National Theatre School), The First Winter (a dramatic account of Irish settlers in the Ottawa Valley in the 1880's), and For the Love of Dance (a backstage look at the world of dance through the activities of seven Canadian Dance Troupes). His most recent film (1995) is Dangerous Minds, starring Michelle Pfeiffer.

3.3.1 Scope and content The fonds consists of a wide variety of documentation in a variety of formats relating to Smith's personal life and professional career as writer, producer and director. The documentation includes screenplays, draft notes for works in progress, shot lists, story boards, call lists and shooting schedules, casting and contact lists, correspondence, research files, and press clippings; incomplete printing elements for 16mm and 35mm productions, rough assemblies, rushes and outs on VHS and Beta video cassettes for film productions.

3.2.2 Administrative history The Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church Canada Conference, Methodist Church in Canada was established in 1824. When this Church joined with the British Wesleyans to establish the Wesleyan Methodist Church in Canada in 1833, the Society evolved into an Auxiliary of the Wesleyan Missionary Society (Great Britain) to support the growth of domestic missions, including missions to Aboriginal People. This union was ended in 1840, but resumed in 1847. In 1854 the British Hudson's Bay Territory missions were transferred to the Missionary Society in Canada, which gradually took over the responsibility of all mission work from Britain beginning in Central Canada and the Northwest. The Society, with some changes in administrative structure, existed as part of the Methodist Church of Canada and the Methodist Church (Canada). The object of the Society came to be the support and enlargement of the aboriginal, French, domestic, foreign and other missions, carried on under the direction of the central committee and board, and later also under the Conferences. In 1906, the missions were divided between two new Departments -- Foreign and Home.

3.3.1 Scope and content

This series contains materials on nearly two hundred presentations by Collins, including speeches, statements, lectures, and interviews. The bulk of the speeches run from 1946 to 1955. Most of the speeches, statements, and lectures are either typed or printed final copies, but there are also drafts of a few speeches, plus handwritten and typed notes and outlines for a number of speeches. Some of the groups General Collins spoke to included service school classes, military units, civic and veterans organizations, educational institutions, and various committees of Congress. He also participated in interviews conducted by numerous members of the media. Although Collins intended to speak on topics relating to the U.S. military, national security, and U.S. foreign policy, he also spoke occasionally on general patriotic themes and domestic problems and policies.

3.2.2 Administrative history The Commission on the Bicentennial of the United States Constitution was established by an act of Congress approved September 29, 1983, and extended until June 30, 1992. The Commission was composed of 23 members, with former Chief Justice of the United States Warren E. Burger serving as its Chairman. The Commission's primary statutory obligation was to encourage private organizations and state and local governments to organize and participate in bicentennial activities that commemorated the drafting, ratification, and history of the Constitution. The Commission sought cooperation, advice, and assistance from both private and governmental agencies and organizations and also delegated authority to State advisory commissions to assist in its efforts. In addition, the Commission served as a clearinghouse for the collection and dissemination of information about bicentennial events and plans. The chief focus of the Commission's programs was educational, with particular emphasis on primary and secondary schools. Accordingly, the Commission committed the major part of its resources to teaching materials, teacher training, and the development and dissemination of new publications on the Constitution.

3.3.1 Scope and content

This series consists of black and white photographic prints of family and friends of Robert E. Peary, images taken inside the Peary home, and scenes from their travels. Shown are images of Marie Peary and Mrs. Josephine Peary dressed in furs. A picture of Marie Peary dressed in furs is also visible on a piano in one of the images showing the apartment, which is shown but the exact address is not given. Scenic views from trips taken by the Pearys throughout the United States are also included. Some of the images include views of Pikes Peak, Colorado, Cheyenne, Wyoming and Niagara Falls, New York. In addition, there is an undated print of a Bowdoin College Reunion, class of 1877, Brunswick, Maine.

3.2.2 Biographical history Torres Strait Islander human rights and indigenous lands rights activist. Principal plaintiff in the landmark High Court of Australia native title case, Mabo and Others versus State of Queensland and the Commonwealth, 1982-1992.

3.2.3 Archival history The papers were purchased by the National Library of Australia in March 1995 from Eddie Mabo's widow, Bonita Mabo. Before the papers were transferred to the Library in December 1994 they had been stored at the Mabo Family home in Townsville.

When the Library took delivery of the Mabo Papers, they consisted of a mixture of labeled files and loose papers. Files created and identified by Mabo have been retained and located in their appropriate series. In some cases, where papers were clearly misfiled, file contents were rearranged by Library staff in consultation with members of the Mabo family. Loose papers have been arranged into series in thematic and chronological order by Library staff. Users can identify files created by Mabo as these have been kept in their original folders and stored in the Library's numbered acid-free folders.

Included in the Mabo Papers were a number of audio tapes of oral history interviews conducted with Mabo by Professor Noel Loos of James Cook University. These tapes have been added to the Library's Oral History collection.

Number and name of element of description	Description	Name of element in the language of description
3.3.1 Scope and content	The papers document many of Eddie Mabo's activities, especially during the years 1972-1992. These include his involvement in a number of family-based business and employment-creation ventures; his establishment of the Black Community School in Townsville, the first institution of its kind in Australia; his interest and involvement in indigenous arts; his involvement in a number of indigenous health, housing and education related boards, associations and committees; and his support for Torres Strait Islander independence and self-determination. The papers include material on the landmark land claim case, a number of personal documents, job applications and some song lyrics. In the later years of his life, Mabo kept diaries; some of these (1976, 1985-1992) are preserved in the Mabo Papers.
3.3.2 Appraisal, destruction and scheduling information	All the Mabo Papers that were transferred to the National Library have been preserved
3.3.3 Accruals	It is understood that further Mabo papers are still in the possession of the Mabo Family and may be transferred to the Library in the future.

3.2.2 Administrative history On 13 November 1939, separate Departments of Navy, Army and Air were established and the Department of Defence [II] then became the Department of Defence Co-ordination. The Department of Defence Co-ordination was responsible for the co-ordination of defence activities, and in particular, for the following:

- (i) Defence policy: All matters of Defence policy in their relation to the Departments of Navy, the Army, Air and Supply and Development.
- (ii) Administrative co-ordination and review:
 - (a) Co-ordination of the activities and requirements of the Navy, Army and Air Departments in the administrative sphere.

4 It is not the practice of government archives in Australia to create fonds-level archival descriptions. In general, the highest level of intellectual control of public records in Australia is at the series level. Series level descriptions include references to provenance entities such as government agencies that have had a relationship with the series being described. It is, however, possible to construct fonds-level descriptions from the series and agency descriptions that form the basis of the Australian 'series system'. The example that is provided here has been constructed from data contained in the National Archives of Australia's CRS System to produce an ISAD(G) compliant fonds-level description. For information on the Australian system see: Adrian Cunningham, 'Dynamic Descriptions: Australian strategies for the intellectual control of records and recordkeeping systems' in P.J. Horsman, F.C.J. Ketelaar and T.H.P.M. Thomassen (eds), Naar een nieuw paradigma in de archivistiek, Amsterdam, 1999, pp. 133-142; and Chris Hurley, 'Problems with Provenance', Archives and Manuscripts: the Journal of the Australian Society of Archivists, vol. 23, no. 2, Nov. 1995, pp. 234-259.

Staff from the Department were represented on the Treasury Committee. The Administrative Arrangements Orders of 29 November 1939 (Commonwealth of Australia Gazette, No. 153 of 30 November 1939) listed the Acts administered by the Department as:

Defence Act 1903-1939 (except in relation to the organisation and control of the Naval Forces or the Military Forces)

Defence Equipment Act 1924, 1928, 1934, 1936, 1937, 1938, 1939

Defence (Visiting Forces) Act 1939

Geneva Convention Act 1938

National Registration Act 1939

National Security Act 1939

Telegraph Act 1909

War Precautions Act Repeal Act 1930-1934, Section 22 (with the exception of sub-section (f))

During the course of its existence changes in defence administration occurred. The Department of Home Security (CA 43) formed in June 1941, assumed responsibility for advice on plans for civil defence and coordination of such activities of States.

In December 1941, the Treasury Defence Division assumed responsibility for Financial Co-ordination and Review, the Board of Business Administration, the Treasury Committee, and the function of co-ordination of civil staff matters (other than the Public Service).

The Directorate of Manpower, established in January 1942, in the Department of Labour and National Service, became responsible for manpower matters and replaced the Manpower Committee and the National Register Board.

With the arrival of United States Staff Officers in Australia in January 1942, an Administrative Planning Committee was established to assist the Americans in arranging through the appropriate Australian Departments, for the establishment of their base organisations in Australia.

Ministerial responsibility for the Department was vested in the Prime Minister who thereby could control the direction of the war effort. On 14 April 1942, the Prime Minister announced that the title of the Department was to be changed to the Department of Defence [III] (CA 46). It was considered a more appropriate statement of his functions as Minister, having regard to the new organisation of the Allied Forces in the South-West Pacific area.

Ministers to the Department were:

13 Nov 1939 - 29 Aug 1941 : Hon Robert Gordon Menzies (CP 54)

29 Aug 1941 - 7 Oct 1941 : Hon Arthur William Fadden

7 Oct 1941 - 14 Apr 1942 : Hon John Curtin (CP 258)

The Secretary of the Department was Sir Frederick G Shedden.

3.2.3 Archival history

The files in this series were initially created and held by the three service departments of the Department of Defence (Army, Navy, Air Force). At the completion of each case, up to 1988, the record was sent to the Central Registry, Attorney-General's Department for registration.

Section 99(1) of the Defence Act 1903 required that transcripts of courts-martial proceedings be sent to the Attorney-General's Department. In 1982 the Defence Force (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act repealed Part VIII of the Defence Act (relating to courts-martial) and replaced it with a section which did not require transcripts of courts-martial proceedings to be sent to the Attorney-General's Department. Nevertheless, the practice of sending files to the Attorney-General's Department continued until 1988. The transcripts are now no longer received by the Attorney-General's Department.

In the period up to 1960, the records were transferred to the Victorian Office of the Australian Archives for ease of reference by the service departments. From 1960 onwards, when these departments had been transferred to Canberra, all files were sent to the ACT Office of the Australian Archives by the Attorney-General's Department. The registers and indexes were maintained in Canberra.

In 1995 courts-martial files from the Defence correspondence file series A703 were top-numbered into series A471. The Defence Archival and Information Section allocated courts-martial file numbers and annotated the control records of A703 to show where top-numbering had occurred. The superceded file numbers from A703 have been recorded in brackets beneath the courts-martial file number on the consignment list.

Ces papiers reçurent un premier classement sommaire par Georges Bazaine, petit-neveu du maréchal, en vue d'une exploitation historique : ce dernier a rassemblé toutes sortes d'articles de journaux, de notes prises dans divers livres et concernant tout particulièrement le rôle que joua le maréchal pendant la campagne de 1870, papiers qui forment la majeure partie du cinquième carton. Ce fonds a été acheté à la veuve du général Régnault, historien qui s'efforça dans ses écrits de réhabiliter le maréchal Bazaine, ce qui explique la présence de deux lettres du général Régnault dans le cinquième carton.

3.2.2 Biographical history

Né le 13 février 1811, le futur maréchal Bazaine s'engage à vingt ans comme simple soldat et conquiert tous les grades en Afrique. Sous-lieutenant à vingt-quatre ans et décoré quelques années plus tard, il prend part aux expéditions de Kabylie, de Mitianah et du Maroc comme capitaine et dirige les affaires arabes dans la subdivision de Tlemcen. La révolution de 1848 le trouve lieutenant-colonel. L'Empire en fait un général de brigade, et c'est avec ce grade qu'il participe à la guerre de Crimée dont il revient général de division. En 1862, il prend le commandement du corps expéditionnaire envoyé au Mexique avec le malheureux Maximilien. En 1864, il est élevé à la dignité de maréchal. Successivement commandant du troisième corps et commandant en chef de la garde impériale, le 15 juillet 1870, il est appelé à la tête du troisième corps de l'armée du Rhin, pour devenir le général en chef de l'armée de Metz au mois d'août. Après maints déboires, s'étant attardé sous Metz, il capitule entre les mains des Prussiens. Cette reddition paraît bien vite honteuse et le 6 octobre 1873, il est traîné devant les tribunaux. Reconnu coupable, il est condamné à la peine de mort avec dégradation militaire. Mac-Mahon commue la peine en vingt ans de détention avec dispense de l'humiliation de la dégradation. Transféré à Sainte-Marguerite après avoir perdu tout espoir de voir sa peine commuée, il s'enfuit le 8 août 1874. Après être passé par la Suisse, la Belgique et l'Angleterre, il se réfugie en Espagne, où il meurt le 20 septembre 1888.

3.2.2 Biographical history Gaetano Salvemini nacque a Molfetta l'8 settembre 1873. Compiuti gli studi ginnasiali e liceali in seminario, per la mancanza di mezzi economici della famiglia, nel 1890 vinse una borsa di studio presso l'Istituto di studi superiori pratici e di perfezionamento di Firenze dove si laureò con una tesi su La dignità cavalleresca nel Comune di Firenze. L'intensa produzione scientifica gli valse, nel 1901, il conseguimento della cattedra di storia medievale e moderna all'Università di Messina. Il forte impegno politico all'interno del Partito socialista, si espresse nella collaborazione alla stampa socialista ("Critica sociale" e "Avanti!"). Nel 1908 nel terremoto che distrusse la città di Messina, perse la moglie, i cinque figli ed una sorella ed egli stesso si salvò per puro caso. Frattanto l'approfondirsi delle divergenze con i gruppi dirigenti del Partito socialista lo andavano allontanando dallo stesso partito, da cui uscì nel 1910 da posizioni democratico-radicali, per fondare il settimanale "L'Unità". Lasciata, a seguito del terremoto, l'Università di Messina insegnò prima a Pisa, per approdare poi alla cattedra di storia moderna dell'Istituto di studi superiori di Firenze. Allo scoppio della guerra mondiale si schierò a fianco dell'interventismo democratico. Nel 1925 dette vita, al primo giornale clandestino antifascista: il "Non Mollare", esperienza che si chiuse con la scoperta e l'arresto dei promotori del giornale, fra i quali lo stesso Salvemini. Rimesso in libertà provvisoria, decise di espatriare clandestinamente. Nel 1934 conseguì la cattedra di storia della civiltà italiana, istituita in memoria di Lauro De Bosis, presso l'Harvard University di Cambridge (Mass). Nel 1947 rimise piede per la prima volta in Italia dopo venti anni d'esilio, per tornarvi poi stabilmente nel 1949. Si spense il 6 settembre 1957.

Tuttavia non vi trovò più una parte dei documenti visti nel 1921. L'anno successivo la Milton Institution finanziò la microfilmatura dell'intero corpus documentario. Il lavoro, avviato prioritariamente con la riproduzione dei documenti che Salvemini non aveva avuto il tempo di analizzare e riassumere a Zurigo, dovette interrompersi allo scoppio della guerra, quando questa parte della documentazione era già stata fotografata. Negli anni successivi Salvemini fece trascrivere i documenti microfilmati e li integrò in un'unica raccolta con la trascrizione dei riassunti da lui presi direttamente a Zurigo di quelli che non si erano potuti riprodurre. 3.2.2 Administrative history	Nella prassi di governo del Granducato lorenese, i Consigli di Stato e Finanze costituivano lo strumento per la risoluzione degli affari correnti e le Segreterie istituivano le pratiche di loro competenza, sulle quali i Direttori delle stesse Segreterie e i Consiglieri esprimevano il proprio parere nelle sedute dei rispettivi Consigli. Alle Segreterie spettava poi "spedire", cioè comunicare agli uffici competenti, il tenore delle risoluzioni adottate, affinché fossero applicate. In base al regolamento del 31 dicembre 1770, la Segreteria di stato risultò composta da un Direttore e due Segretari, ognuno dei quali aveva competenza per gli affari del proprio dipartimento, scriveva personalmente i rescritti per informazione e attendeva alla spedizione degli affari. Il Primo segretario si occupava anche degli affari di Livorno e della revisione delle stampe; il secondo, degli affari delle Maremme. Il Direttore aveva la competenza esclusiva, senza obbligo di parteciparne informazione al Sovrano, in una serie di affari considerati di "media importanza", secondo la gerarchia che venne stabilita nel motuproprio del 27 dicembre 1773, che distingueva tra affari di "minima importanza", affidati ai capi degli uffici minori, di "media importanza", affidati ai Direttori dei Dipartimenti di Stato, Finanze e Guerra, e "importanti", da discutere nel rispettivo Consiglio. Nel 1780 si realizzò una riforma della Segreteria di stato che prevedeva la riduzione del numero degli affari da portare in Consiglio ampliando le competenze non più del Direttore della Segreteria bensì dei singoli uffici. Il 6 aprile 1789 furono riuniti il Consiglio di Stato, cui già era stata attribuita, nel 1770, la competenza sugli affari di guerra, e quello delle finanze, pur restando separate le rispettive Segreterie. A capo del Consiglio di Stato, finanze e guerra fu posto un Primo direttore mentre a capo dei Dipartimenti di Stato e di finanze, due Secondi direttori. Questo regolamento rimase in vigore durante la seconda reggenza nel 1790. Nell'aprile del 1791, all'arrivo di Ferdinando II, fu riconfermato l'assetto del 1789. La riforma del 1789, introduceva nel funzionamento del Consiglio anche elementi di collegialità poiché i consiglieri dovevano esaminare e discutere collegialmente gli affari da sottoporre al Granduca sulla base dei rapporti informativi delle segreterie e proporre un unico parere, tranne nei casi di grave dissenso, nei quali si portavano al sovrano voti separati. La Segreteria di Stato fu soppressa a seguito dell'annessione della Toscana all'Impero francese nel 1808.	Storia istituzionale/amministrativa
3.2.3 Archival history	L'Archivio della Segreteria di Stato costituiva la prosecuzione di quello cosiddetto del Consiglio di Reggenza ed ambedue erano sottoposti alla vigilanza del Direttore della Segreteria di Stato. Nel 1808, con l'annessione della Toscana all'Impero francese, i due archivi confluirono nella Conservazione generale degli archivi ed ivi rimasero fino al 1814 quando, con la Restaurazione, fu ripristinata la Segreteria di Stato, che ritirò dalla Conservazione generale il solo Archivio della Segreteria di Stato dal 1765-1808, mentre l'Archivio del Consiglio di Reggenza confluì nella nuova concentrazione archivistica allora costituita e posta sotto il controllo dell'Avvocato Regio, denominata Archivi riuniti a quelli delle Regie Rendite, dove fu ordinato ed inventariato. Negli anni successivi anche l'Archivio della Segreteria di Stato (1765-1808) passò agli Archivi riuniti a quelli delle Regie Rendite, per poi confluire, nel 1846 assieme all'Archivio del Consiglio di Reggenza, nell'Archivio delle Riformagioni.	Storia archivistica
3.2.4 Immediate source of acquisition or transfer	L'Archivio della Segreteria di stato pervenne all'Archivio Centrale dello Stato in Firenze, all'atto della sua fondazione (1852) insieme con il resto degli archivi già appartenuti alle Riformagioni.	Modalità di acquisizione o versamento

3.3.1 Scope and Content	Il fondo raccoglie gli affari istruiti dalla Segreteria di Stato e risolti, fino alla riforma dei Consigli del 1789, nel Consiglio di Stato, successivamente, nel Consiglio di Stato, finanze e guerra oppure risolti direttamente dal Granduca nel suo Gabinetto. Ad essi fanno seguito le filze di affari e i protocolli del Commissario imperiale e dell'Amministratore generale della Toscana che ressero l'ex Granducato fra il 1807 e il 1808, prima della diretta annessione all'Impero francese. Il fondo conserva anche i cosiddetti "Affari di sanità", riuniti a quelli della Segreteria di Stato per decreto dell'Amministratore generale della Toscana nel 1808.	Ambiti e contenuto
3.3.4 System of arrangement	Il fondo, nella parte che riguarda specificatamente la documentazione prodotta dalla Segreteria di Stato, è strutturato nelle tre serie tipiche degli archivi delle segreterie e dei ministeri toscani: quella delle buste di affari risolti, quella dei registri dei protocolli delle risoluzioni, infine, quella dei registri (o repertori) degli affari, che costituisce lo strumento di accesso alle altre due. Rimasto privo di strumenti di corredo e di numerazione unica, fino al suo trasferimento dagli Uffizi all'attuale sede dell'Archivio di stato di Firenze (1989), è stato in quell'occasione inventariato e dotato di numerazione unica di corda da Orsola Campanile. Ogni fascicolo è formato dagli atti necessari allo svolgimento dell'affare medesimo, dalla apertura della pratica (minute delle missive, responsive e documenti diversi) alla sua conclusione con la minuta della risoluzione finale. La serie comprende buste di affari risolti, dal 1784 al 1789, dal 1791 al 1799, dal sovrano all'interno o fuori dal Consiglio; dal 1790 all'aprile 1791 risolti dal Consiglio di reggenza o dal Sovrano; dal luglio 1799 al maggio 1800 risolti dal Senato o da questo con sovrano dispaccio; dal giugno all'ottobre del 1800 risolti dalla reggenza. Dal 1801 al 1807, durante il Regno d'Etruria, gli affari sono risolti dalla regina reggente per Ludovico di Borbone. Dal dicembre 1807 gli affari sono risolti dal Consiglio sotto la presidenza del Commissario di S. M. Imperatore dei francesi e Re d'Italia e nel 1808 dal suddetto Consiglio e dall'Amministratore generale della Toscana.	Ambiti e contenuto

3.2.2 Administrative history	A Comissão Especial de Exame do Cofre dos Órfãos foi constituída em janeiro de 1916, por membros nomeados pelos ministros da Justiça e Negócios Interiores e da Fazenda, para verificar a contabilidade dos empréstimos feitos pelos cofres dos órfãos ao Tesouro Nacional. Tais empréstimos haviam sido autorizados pelo decreto n.º 231, de 13/11/1841, que, em seu art. 6º § 4º, permitia ao governo valer-se, com juros de 6% ao ano, das quantias depositadas nos cofres dos cartórios de órfãos, provenientes de heranças, doações ou legados recebidos por menores, dementes, pródigos etc. Mais tarde, pelo decreto n.º 779, de 6/9/1854, tais juros foram reduzidos a 5%. Na medida em que a escrituração dos empréstimos pelo Tesouro Nacional não determinava o nome dos credores, mas apenas o valor total emprestado numa dada ocasião, ocorreram situações em que o Tesouro pagava a um credor quantias recolhidas por diversos empréstimos, além de outras em que o total recolhido ao Tesouro era menor do que aquele acusado nos livros dos escrivães de órfãos. Suspeitando-se de irregularidades, foram formadas várias comissões que, acusando a presença de problemas, não os resolveram. Pelo decreto n.º 5.143, de 27/2/1904, foi determinado que a partir daquela data fossem os empréstimos escriturados em nome dos menores, declarando-se a soma emprestada, filiação dos credores, origem da herança ou legado e data da maioridade dos credores. Era fundamental, entretanto, que se resolvessem os problemas dos empréstimos anteriores. A Comissão, que iniciou seus trabalhos em 1916, dedicou-se ao exame da escrituração dos empréstimos ocorridos no período de 18/3/1871 a 21/7/1910, havendo concluído esse trabalho e apresentado relatório de suas conclusões em dezembro de 1925. Há, entretanto, indicações de que a Comissão tenha continuado a existir após essa data, na medida em que existem documentos posteriores a 1925.	História administrativa
